2. The reissuance due to a malfunction stipulated in IC Regulations Article 17 shall not be made.

(Special Procedures When a Malfunction Has Occurred)

Article 17 If damage or the like makes it impossible to use a Welcome Suica at automatic ticket gates, in transactions for fare tickets or the like at ticket vending machines etc., for fare adjustments at automatic fare adjustment machines or to use a valid Suica Discount Passes, and when the user fills in the required entries in a separate application form prescribed by the Company and submits it along with the said Welcome Suica at a station, the Company will issue the user with a separately prescribed certificate which will be handled according to the provisions in the following clauses. This does not apply in cases where it is deemed that the damage was caused intentionally by the user or is the result of gross negligence on the part of the user.

- (1) Any remaining SF balance will be reimbursed when the user submits the said Welcome Suica Card and the separately prescribed certificate issued by the Company at a station within the period from the day after the user submitted his/her application to the 14th day after the expiration date of the said Welcome Suica. However, this will not be done if the number printed on the back of the card is indecipherable.
- (2) If Suica Discount Passes data is registered in the said Welcome Suica Card, the Reference Paper is to be shown to the station official in addition to the said Welcome Suica Card and the separately prescribed certificate issued by the Company. It is then handled as follows.
 - a. If, within the period from the day after the user submitted his/her application to the 14th day after the expiration date of the said Welcome Suica, the user requests reimbursement for a Suica Discount Passes that has not yet been used and is still during the period of its validity, the amount equivalent to the Suica Discount Passes will be reimbursed in addition to the reimbursement of the SF balance stipulated in the previous clause.
 - b. If the user requests to continue his/her use of a Suica Fare Plan Card that is still during the period of its validity, regardless of whether this is prior to or after his/her commencement of its use, procedures will be taken for the continued use of the said Suica Fare Plan Card. Once this continued use is over, the reimbursement of the SF balance stipulated in the previous clause shall be made if the user has applied again at a station.

(Special Procedures When a Malfunction Has Occurred in an IC Card Issued by an Operator Other than the Company)

Article 18 If a malfunction has occurred in an IC card named in the following clause(s) that was issued by a business operator specified in IC Regulations Article 61 Paragraph 2, it shall be handled as in the preceding article. However, the reimbursement liability shall be confined to the company that issued the said IC card.

- (1) PASMO PASSPORT issued by PASMO Co., Ltd.

(Applicable Laws and Court of Jurisdiction)

Article 19 These regulations shall be governed by the laws of Japan.

2. Any disputes related to these regulations shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Tokyo District Court in the first instance.

Supplementary Provision

The Japanese version of these regulations is the authorized version. If there are any discrepancies between the content of the Japanese and English versions, the content of the Japanese version shall take precedence.
